Blessings to those that fear God.

CHAPTER IV.

The study of the law recommende.

Before CHRIST ch. 397.

16 ¶ Then they that feared the LORD spake often one to another, and the LORD hearkened and heard it: and a book of remembrance was written before him for them that feared the LORD, and that thought upon his name.

Or special treasure.

17 And they shall be mine, saith the LORD of hosts, in that day when I make up my jewels, and I will spare them, as a man spareth his own son that serveth him.

18. Then shall ye return, and discern between the righteous and the wicked; between him that serveth God, and him that serveth him not.

CHAPTER IV.

1 God's judgment on the wicked, 2 and his blessing on the good. 4 He exhorteth to the study of the law, 5 and telleth of Elijah's coming and office.

¶ Or, behold, the day cometh that shall burn as an oven: and all the proud, yea, and all that do wickedly, shall be stubble: and the day that cometh shall burn them up, saith the LORD of hosts, that it shall leave them neither root nor branch.

Before CHRIST ch. 397.

2 ¶ But unto you that fear my name shall the Sun of righteousness arise with healing in his wings; and ye shall go forth, and grow up as calves of the stall.

Luke 1: 78.

3 And ye shall tread down the wicked; for they shall be ashes under the soles of your feet in the day that I shall do this, saith the LORD of hosts.

4 ¶ Remember ye the law of Moses my servant, which I commanded unto him in Horeb for all Israel, with the statutes and judgments.

Exod. 20: 7.

5 ¶ Behold, I will send you Elijah the prophet before the coming of the great and dreadful day of the LORD:

Malch. 3: 23. Mark 9: 11. Luke 1: 17.

6 And he shall turn the heart of the fathers to the children, and the heart of the children to their fathers, lest I come and smite the earth with a curse.

To the Commissioner of Pensions,

Present.

WAR DEPARTMENT,
Pension Office.

Sir:

The evidence in support of your claim, under the act of June 7, 1832, has been examined, and the papers are herewith returned. The following is a statement of your case in a tabular form. On comparing these papers with the following rules and the subjoined notes you will readily perceive that objections exist, which must be removed, before a pension can be allowed. The notes and the regulations will show what is necessary to be done. These points to which your attention is more particularly directed, you will find marked in the margin with a brace, (thus: }). You will, when you return your papers to this Department, send this printed letter with them; and you will, by complying with this request, greatly facilitate the investigation of your claim.

appeared before the Superior Court held in and for the county and state of said James Hoodler
a resident of said County and State of Georgia aged eighty six Against the fifth day of November next who being first duly sworn deponent According to laws doth on his oath make the following declaration in order to obtain the benefit of the provision made by the act of Congress passed June the 7th 1832 That he enlisted in the Army of the United States in the year seven hundred and seventy eight with Capt John Stokes in the Battalion Command by Major Blaylock in the Sixth Virginia Regiment Commanded by Genl. Bissons and under the Command of Genl. Meadors Lieutenant Meador was one of the副队长 officers of the company that he served twelve months in this tour of enlistment that he served another tour of about three months under an enlistment as Private for twelve months that he served under Capt. G. Green who was promoted to be then served under Capt. Dixon Cook Commanded by Colonel Morgan and Lewis that he resided in the County of Surberburg State of Virginia that he served a 4th tour in North Carolina that he was in the battle at Gylford North Carolina which was the only general engagement he was in during the war That he started to march from Surber burg under the command of Capt Richard Wright a Militia officer that joined Major Garrison's detachment at a short distance and marched under Major Cunningham to Washington, crossing at Valley Forge, passed through Maryland, that he marched after he left Valley Forge, through Connecticut and New York and moved about variously according to the movements of the British army. This was during the twelve months service.

The honorably relinquishes every claim whatever to a pension or annuity, except the present and he declares that his name is not on the pension roll of any agency in any State known to and subscribed for after the date of the day and year aforesaid.

And the said Court doth hereby declare his opinion that the above named applicant was a revolutionary soldier and served as he states.

The Deponent further saith that from his service of three months and six weeks he had no warrant but a mere verbal one from the officers commanding his charge. From his service of the said months he had a written discharge which was given at Middlebrook, and signed by Deponent & others by Genl. Washington, which discharge is kept in Depon-ent's house of no individual name being by whom he can prove said service.
